

Join the International Statistical Institute as a Regular Member

Regular Membership is open to everyone who shares the values and objectives of the ISI.

As an ISI Regular Member you can

Be part of a professional society with individual and institutional members in over 130 countries!

Network with statisticians from academia, research organizations, national governments, international agencies, business and industry, etc. and use the ISI & ISI Associations network for exploring new ideas.

Enjoy discounted rates for participation in the ISI's biennial World Statistics Congress (WSC) and other international conferences and workshops organized by the ISI.

Enjoy discounts on the ISI publications such as the International Statistical Review and the joint ASA-RSS magazine Significance.

Join one of the ISI Committees or interest groups and become active in an international network in your interest area.

Be informed about the latest ISI activities via monthly electronic news items.

To become a member please complete the application form at isi.cbs.nl/isi-form.asp or send an email to isi@cbs.nl

Read more about ISI at www.isi-web.org and follow us on Facebook & Twitter @IntStat

ISI: Statistical Science for a Better World

