Highlights: 2Q 2020

Contraction in economic activity due to weak external conditions and domestic containment measures

Negative headline inflation due mainly to lower fuel prices; core inflation moderated slightly

Gradual recovery towards the end of the quarter

Key indicators began picking up in May as MCO restrictions were eased